Name

POMEGRANATE

Harness the power of organic pomegranate's antioxidant polyphenols for cells of all ages.

Only select, freshly-harvested and sun-ripened pomegranates are worthy of a Rabenhorst bottle, which contains the entire wealth of their natural ingredients.

- Antioxidant polyphenols which give the fruit its rich red colour can be effective in protecting cells, removing free radicals and reducing inflammation – more than most other fruit juices, red wine or green tea.
- As well as vitamin C and vitamin E, pomegranate juice is a good source of folate, potassium, and vitamin K.
- Harmonious bittersweet taste balance of 100% pure organic juice!
