WINES – RED

Name

AD ARAM (Spätburgunder)

Discover the late-burgundy grapes which adorned Roman altars in this hidden valley.

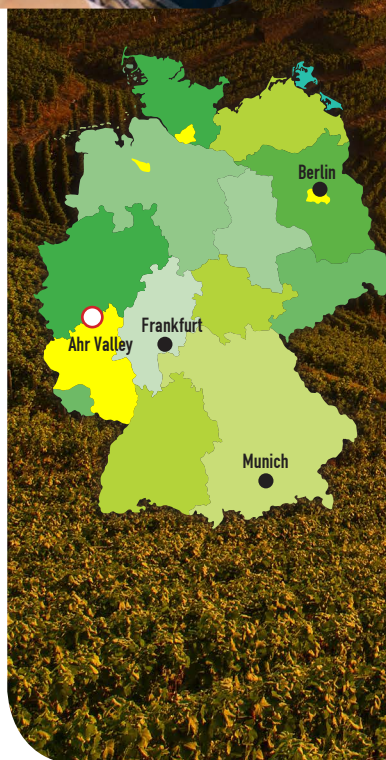

In a nod to the Roman legacy of the vineyards astride the Ahr Valley, this very special edition of Germany's classic dry red has been named after the Latin term for 'altar'.

Your first mouthful is rich in centuries of tradition, with a wonderful bouquet from the aromas of ripe forest berries and nuances of noble spices, followed by fruity notes of black cherries.

Delicately barrique-aged, the full colours of this exquisite drop reveal themselves to you over a hearty roast of duck, beef or venison and red cabbage.

Alcohol content: 13.5% vol.
