WINES – RED

Name

HOMMAGE (Frühburgunder)

Savour a truly rare, dry-aged red named in tribute to the artisans of its hidden valley.

The weathered slate soils of the Pfaffenberg's steep (70%) slopes force the mountain's aged vines to dig deep to nourish the rare grapes which yield this iconic wine of the Ahr Valley.

Delicate and complex, with fine aromas of black cherries and ripe wild berries, this "Pinot Madeleine" has a warm, fine-spicy body with well-integrated tannins and acidity, and a hint of vanilla next to the fruit on the palate.

Dry-aged in an oak barrique for up to 18 months, this rare red pairs well with a herb-crusted lamb fillet and roast veges.

Alcohol content: 13.5% vol.
